THE NATIONAL CONGRESS.

MR. JONES SPEAKS TO THE SENATE ON THE SILVER QUESTION.

A Breezy Scene in the House—Some Hot Words About Trusts and Monopolies—Nothing Comes of It All.

(By United Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 12.—The feature of to-day's Senate proceedings was a long speech by Mr. Jones, of Nevada, in support of his silver bill. Senator Jones spoke for three hours and claimed the closest attention from Senators on both sides of the chamber. He made a long argument in favor of the free coinage of silver, increasing the volume of currency, the remonetization of silver and bi-metalism.

House.
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 12.—(House) After the reading of the journal, the House went into a committee of the whole on the tariff bill, agreeing to a motion offered by Mr. McKinley that the general debate be limited to one minute. Mr. Grosvenor threw the House into a commotion by declaring that two years ago the leader of the greatest and most extortionate trust in the country came to the Capitol, marched into the dark chamber of the ways and means committee and figuratively took the majority of that committee by the head and shook free sugar out of it. Mr. Mills at once jumped to his feet and exclaimed: "I want to state to the gentleman from Ohio that that statement is false. Every word of it is false." (Great applause on the Democratic side.) Mr. Grosvenor—"We hear the old plantation slogan again. (Applause on the Republican side.)

Mr. Mills—"You will always hear it when you deserve it." Mr. Grosvenor—"We hear the old Texas slogan again. A man who, at the head of a great committee, puts his name upon a bill and sinks his party into oblivion, ought to get indignant. The plantation manners of the gentleman who made the speech in New Haven will not drive me from my position."

Mr. Mills—"Nobody will drive you from your position of falsehood."

Mr. McMillan—"Will you permit a question?"

Mr. Grosvenor—"Yes, if it is in parliamentary language. I do not propose to be interrupted by the shot-gun policy." (Applause.)

Mr. McMillan then asked how sugar trusts certificates had risen $10,000,000 since the McKinley bill was reported.

Mr. Grosvenor retorted that he would like to know how the trust was formed when there was a democratic majority in the House.

Mr. McMillan replied that the jute trust and the sugar trust were formed under republican tariff laws.

Mr. Grosvenor asked if it were not true that the ways and means committee of the 50th Congress changed its sugar schedule the day following the visit of Mr. Havemeyer, of New York.

Mr. McMillan said the schedule was never changed in consequence of any visit of Mr. Havemeyer. So far as he knew Mr. Havemeyer did not visit the committee or any members of it.

Mr. Mills said he was sorry anything of a personal character had been brought in. He did not believe any gentleman of the majority of the ways and means committee had been approached improperly.

Mr. McKinley made the same disclaimer regarding the majority of the committee of the last House. [Applause.]

Mr. Mills said the present bill gave the sugar trust 100 per cent more than was allowed by the last Congress. After the Grosvenor-Mills incident, the House settled down to quiet. All amendments offered by Democrats were rejected, and at 5:45 the House adjourned.

REV. SAM JONES.

He Raises $8,000 for a Permanent Tabernacle at Danville.

(By United Press.)
DANVILLE, Va., May 12.—The great Sam Jones meeting closed here this afternoon. Yesterday $8,000, the sum necessary to pay for the tabernacle which had been built, was raised, and the building becomes a permanent house of worship, to be used for large religious gatherings. The results of the meeting are about seven hundred conversions.

SENATOR GORMAN

Is the Choice as Senator Beck's Successor.

(By United Press.)
WASHINGTON, May 12.—The democratic Senators held a caucus this morning to choose a successor to the late Senator Beck as chairman of the caucus. There was only one name suggested—that of Senator Gorman, and he was declared the unanimous choice of the caucus for chairman. No other business was transacted.

A TERRIBLE FATE.

A Ship Wrecked off the New Hebrides—And the Survivors Tomahawked by the Natives.

(By United Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—Four white and forty-seven natives, who were going as laborers to Australia, were lost by the wreck of the Schooner Eliza Mary off the New Hebrides. The survivors say that about twenty natives and one white man reached shore, but the Islanders after inviting them to a feast, tomahawked the whole crew, except one boy who escaped.

A Strike Settled.

(By United Press.)
CINCINNATI, May 12.—The strike on the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad was settled this morning. The men resumed work at ten hours per day, the concession demanded.

THE CATTLE SHOW.

It is Growing to an Immensity—A Great Exhibit—Special Trains and Special Rates.

Thursday the 15th, is the day for the great Wake county horse and cattle show.

It has been growing and growing and it is something tremendous.

Its size will be seen by those who shall have the luck to be here. It is positively too good a thing to miss.

Illustrated posters and hand bills have been printed and sent all through the adjacent country. These have attracted attention and people are coming. The annual cattle show is one of Raleigh and Wake's established institutions, and it shows promise of becoming one of the great annual cattle shows of the country within the next few years.

There is already talk of securing special grounds, and building commodious stables for the fair next year. This talk will probably resolve itself into a reality. But the show this year will be a great thing without the special grounds.

The great yards and stables on Morgan street have been put in elegant condition. Seats have been provided for the ladies who will attend. They will have ample and full protection from sun or rain. Refreshments will be sold on the grounds.

After the grand parade the stock will return to the yards, and there will be both public and private sales of fine stock.

Special Trains and Rates.

In compliance with a demand from the people of Franklin county, Capt. Wm. Smith, superintendent of the Raleigh & Gaston railroad, has arranged for a special train from Louisville to Franklin. This train will leave Louisville at 5 o'clock on the morning of the 15th, will connect at Frankfort with early morning train for Raleigh. Returning, passengers will leave Raleigh at 7 p. m., arrive at Frankfort at 9:10 p. m., and at Louisville at 9:40 p. m.

Death of General Geo. W. Haywood.

A telegram was received here yesterday announcing the death of Gen. Geo. Washington Haywood, which occurred on Saturday, May 13th, on his plantation near Greensboro, Ala.

Gen. Haywood was the brother of the late Dr. Fabius J. Haywood and of Dr. E. Burke Haywood, of this city. He was in his eighty-eighth year. He graduated at the University of North Carolina in 1821, and was at the time of his death the oldest graduate of said institution, we think. He passed most of his life in Wake county, and no man ever lived in the county more respected and loved than he. He was very prominent as a lawyer up to the opening of the war. Since that time he has devoted himself to farming.

THE CURABLE INSANE.

A Proposition to Increase the Accommodations for that Class—The Harmless, Incurable Insane to be Cared for by the counties.

The executive committee of the board of directors of the North Carolina Insane Asylum met here yesterday.

Among the business transacted was the issuing of orders to put some of the criminal insane to work.

It is learned that the authorities of the Insane Asylum have determined to make room for some of the many curable cases in the State, by sending from the Asylum to their respective counties, such of the incurable cases as are perfectly harmless. Notices under the law have been issued to the county authorities to remove the parties designated by the board from the Asylum, but as yet no action has been taken except by the counties of Johnston, Wilson, Halifax, and Nash. This is a duty imposed by the law on the board, and the board feel that the crowded condition of the institution with harmless incurables, together with the large number of curable cases now in the jails and poor houses that can be profitably treated in the asylum, and the greater number of dangerous cases in this division of the State, demand the enforcement of the law against the sheriffs and other county authorities for failing to take away from the asylum the harmless insane, that they have been notified to come for, according to law.

Arrested for Abduction.

(Charlotte Chronicle.)
John Black has been arrested at Columbia, S. C., charged with abducting Miss Caswell, the 14 year old daughter of Mrs. Julia Caswell, of Whiteville, N. C. The arrest was made in accordance with a telegram from the girl's mother, and also a telegram from the North Carolina Sheriff at Whiteville. The girl is good looking. Both she and Black assert that the relations between them have not been improper.

THE BAPTISTS.

Their Publishing House Question—They Will Have one.

[Special to the STATE CHRONICLE.]
FORT WORTH, TEXAS, May 12.—There was no regular session of the Southern Baptist Convention Sunday, but prominent delegates occupied the local pulpits. The churches were crowded morning and evening to hear the sermons.

The important question as to whether the Southern Baptist Convention should recommend the literature of Northern publishing houses, or whether it should have a great publishing house of its own, came up to-day, and the Frost resolutions in the matter were adopted by a vote of 419 to 176.

The substance of these resolutions is: RESOLVED, That to the boards already existing we add another, to be elected at this session of the convention, and to be called the Board of Publication of the Southern Baptist Convention.

RESOLVED, That the committee on nominations, besides recommending the board of managers, be requested to recommend also the place of its location.

RESOLVED, That the Sunday-school literature, known as the Kind Words Series, including all contracts with publishers, writers and others in the interest of its publication, be transferred from the home mission board to the board of publication.

RESOLVED, That it shall not be within the province of said board to publish other literature than that committed to its care by these resolutions, except such as may be necessary to the greater efficiency of the series, or as the convention itself may hereafter direct.

Resolved, That any profit accruing from said publications, after a liberal allowance for the conduct of its business, the board of managers shall appropriate as the convention may order from time to time.

North Carolina's Vice-Presidents.

Dr. Carter's Sermon.

Dr. Carter, of North Carolina, more than met the high expectations of all in his masterly convention sermon, delivered with great unction and power.

THE HOSE REEL CONTEST.

The Rescue Wins the Race—And Walks off With Two Prizes—First and Second.

The much talked of contest between the Rescue single horse wagon and the Capital Hose company single horse wagon came off yesterday afternoon at the race grounds on New Bern avenue. There was great interest in this contest and at 6:30 o'clock, the hour announced for the race, the avenue was literally thronged with people, who were about evenly divided in preference for the companies.

The Rescue ran first, the gray horse "Henry" and the "Old Hickory" wagon being driven by Manny Pennington. This combination made a run of 331 yards, hitting the horse and showing water all in 55 seconds. When the time was announced there was a tremendous huzzah; for this time was marvellously good, and the partisans of the Rescue were dead sure that it could not be beaten.

The Capital Hose followed. The gray horse "Edward" the beautiful wagon "Margie Lily" and Mr. Ric. Pool being their time making combination. The company made a splendid run, but failed to show water properly. Of course there were several things which would explain why they were defeated; but they lost the race, and that settled it. No time was recorded for them.

This race was a continuation of the race held at the tournament here last summer to decide a mooted question, and the victory of the Rescue entitles it to both the first and second tournament prizes; its single wagon winning the first prize of $50, and its double wagon winning the second prize of $25.00.

When the Rescue wagon returned to its house from the avenue, it carried a banner with "Victory" painted on it, and was given a rousing ovation as it passed down street.

A Prairie Dog.

(High Point Enterprise.)
Mr. N. H. Lewis, last week, while examining his chicken house found a full grown prairie dog in one of the hen's nests. It was very much like a squirrel about the body, but the head resembled that of a rabbit. It is supposed that it escaped from Andrews' circus last fall.

DR. A. W. MANGUM DEAD.

The Christian Worker, Preacher and Educator at Rest.

A telegram received last night announced the death of Rev. Dr. A. W. Mangum, at Chapel Hill.

Thousands of people in the State will learn of his death with poignant sorrow. His life has been one of noble effort and work. His name has been a synonym for true Christian manhood.

His influence as a preacher of the Gospel and as an educator has been great in North Carolina for many years, and that influence will live on and on, though he who exerted it shall rest from his labors and sleep the sleep of the pure in heart and the great in achievement.

Dr. Mangum is remembered as one of the greatest preachers of the North Carolina conference; and since 1875 he has occupied the chair of Moral Philosophy and English Literature at the State University.

The CHRONICLE will give its readers a biographical sketch of a noble life to-morrow.

THE METHODISTS.

Their Declaration in Regard to Dancing, Theatre Going and the Like.

[Special to STATE CHRONICLE.]

ST. LOUIS, May 9, 1890.—Some lively discussions have already taken place, in reference to the rights of lay members of the General Conference to appointment on committees on the Episcopacy and Appeals. The first committee considers all matters in connection with the administration of the Bishop, and the second appeals to the General Conference by a travelling preacher from the action an annual conference in his case.

2nd, In reference to the following resolutions introduced by the Rev. Thos. J. Duncan, of the Tennessee Conference: WHEREAS, The word of God forbids conformity to the world; and

WHEREAS, The general rules of our church prohibit the same, and the vows of membership assumed by all coming into the fold pledge them to its renunciation and to obedience to her discipline; and

WHEREAS, Our bishops in their annual addresses from time to time emphasize these facts and the damage to the spirituality of the church on account of worldliness; and

WHEREAS, As the itinerant preachers we promise to keep and not to mend our rules in our ordination vows, pledge ourselves to banish and drive away all erroneous and strange doctrines contrary to the word of God; and

WHEREAS, We regard theatre-going, dancing, card-playing and the like as either indulged in by many of our members as in clear violation of their religious vows, and the failure of some of our members to notice this violation an inconsistent with ministerial vows; therefore,

RESOLVED FIRST, That we greatly deplore the damage which comes to the purity and power of our beloved church from this state of affairs.

SECOND, That we urge our pastors to give all diligence in warning our people against the danger of worldliness along the lines indicated, and to execute with love and fidelity the requirements of the discipline in such cases.

THIRD, That we regard the impression made on the minds of our young people by the use of such expressions as "reformed theatre," "legitimate drama," and the like, as misleading and dangerous, and the more so if they emanate from a preacher of the gospel, and we heartily condemn the use of these expressions by our preachers as hurtful to the cause of Christ.

After a protracted discussion on these resolutions, they were adopted. While they were adopted as a whole, many members of the body expressed dissent to apparent reflections on pastors in the fifth preamble, for failure to notice the conduct of church members in the matters set forth in the resolutions.

A discussion took place this morning (Friday) on the following resolution, introduced by Rev. D. C. Kelley, D. D., of Tennessee:

RESOLVED, That it is the sense of this General Conference that lay members are eligible to appointment on all of its committees; and the following substitute therefor was presented by Rev. H. V. Philpott, of Texas: "That it is the sense of this body that laymen be appointed upon all the committees of this conference, except the Committee on Appeals." The original resolution declaring that laymen are eligible to appointment on a committee of the General Conference was adopted.

A memorial proposing a division of the North Carolina Conference and the formation of two conferences in the State of North Carolina, and looking to the acquisition of the territory in the Virginia Conference in the east and Holston Conference in the west, was presented this morning (Friday) and is now before the Committee on Boundaries.

A special committee on Bible Cause, with Rev. H. T. Hudson, of Cleveland county, N. C., chairman, has been appointed.

A special committee on the Sabbath has been appointed. Rev. John R. Brooks, D. D., of Shelby, N. C., is a member of the committee. D. W. BAIN.

FEMALE CITY OFFICERS RESIGN.

They Were Elected to Office—But They Could Not Stand the Ridicule of the Men.

(By United Press.)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 12.—The women who were recently elected officers of Edgerton, Kansas, have resigned owing to the ridicule and criticism to which their official acts have been subjected by certain of the male citizens. A special election for mayor and other officers thus left vacant, will be held May 19th. It is believed that the women whose administration has on the whole given satisfaction, will be re-elected.

THE DEAD HONORED.

THE MEMORIAL EXERCISES YESTERDAY.

A Beautifully Decorated Hall—Large Attendance of Citizens—Superb Music—A Brilliant Oration—A Long Procession.

On yesterday the annual memorial exercises in remembrance and honor of the Confederate dead were held under the auspices of the Ladies' Memorial Association of Raleigh.

Early in the morning a number of ladies went to Metropolitan hall to arrange it for the occasion.

When they had completed their work, that auditorium presented a tasty and elegant appearance. Above the stage were graceful festoons of black and white, and these colors also covered the box of the entire gallery. The solidity of the colors was broken at proper intervals by large stars and rosettes of black and white, from which floated beautiful streamers.

The stage had had a large share of attention. On each side floated the old Confederate battle flag. Beneath one flag was a large steel engraving of Gen. R. E. Lee, and beneath the other a companion piece, "Stonewall" Jackson. Both pictures were profusely and gracefully wreathed with choice flowers.

On each front corner of the stage were huge pillars of flowers uniquely and beautifully woven together and presenting a lovely sight indeed.

Along the front sides of the gallery, appeared in letters of evergreens these names, "Bentonville," "Kinston," "Fort Fisher," and "Bellefield."

These names designated the locations where the "Junior Reserves" of North Carolina figured most conspicuously in the great struggle of 1861-65; and were a specially appropriate feature of the decorations, since the subject of the oration of the day had been announced as "The Junior Reserves."

The Exercises.

It had been announced that the exercises of the day should begin at four o'clock.

At 1 o'clock the Durham cornet band, which had been engaged to make the occasion, arrived in the city and took quarters at the Yarbrough house. Very shortly after the marshals of the day began the work of putting the programme, as announced, into effect, and they performed their work with a promptness and efficiency which were remarkable.

Capt. Samuel A. Ashe was the chief marshal, and the following were his assistants:

G. M. Allen, R. F. Park, W. C. Moore, A. L. Fernald, J. Wiley Jones, A. B. Stronach, James McKimmon, D. G. Conn, H. W. Ayer, J. B. Hill, C. H. Clark, M. W. Page, W. H. Hughes, C. F. Lumsden, J. C. B. Little, J. R. Fernald, W. N. Snellings, J. W. Barber, J. C. Marcom, Kimbrough Jones, L. D. Womble, W. G. Allen, W. D. Smith, D. W. Royster, R. J. Powell, A. M. Powell, Forest Hatch and E. J. Hardin.

At 3:15 the band proceeded to capitol square and began to render appropriate airs. This was the signal for the forming of the procession which should march to the hall. The citizens began to gather, and before the opening hour, all the seats except such as were reserved, were taken. The galleries were also crowded to their utmost capacity.

At 3:30 the Governor's Guard fell into line and went to capitol square. From that point the company, preceded by the band, and the marshals all mounted, marched to the hall and occupied reserved seats. The Confederate Veterans' Association had just preceded them, and as these brave heroes and veterans entered the building, they were given a genuine ovation. The Guard also came in for a generous share of applause.

Following the guard came a delegation of prominent citizens headed by Governor Fowle, who were escorted to the stage. These were followed by Mr. F. H. Busbee, the orator of the day, under the escort of Marshal A. B. Stronach, who was in charge of the hall. While these gentlemen were entering the applause was continuous.

The Durham band had taken a position in the front gallery, and while the people continued to assemble, discoursed splendid music.

The audience was a representative one, being composed largely of the best element of the city.

On the stage were Gov. Fowle, Chief Justice Merrimon, Associate Justices Avery, Davis, Shepherd and Clark; Hon. R. H. Smith, Mayor Alf. A. Thompson, Maj. S. M. Finger, Rev. W. M. Clark, Rev. Dr. J. S. Watkins, Rev. J. H. Cordon, Col. Thomas S. Kenan, Capt. Octavius Coke, Mr. R. H. Battle, Mr. J. B. Batchelor, Capt. Samuel A. Ashe, Chief Marshal and Mr. F. H. BUSBEE, THE ORATOR OF THE DAY.

The Ladies Memorial Association occupied a reserved section in the right front of the hall, and were in attendance in good numbers.

At four o'clock, the Chief Marshal stepped forward and announced the introduction of the exercises—"The Bivouac of the Dead"—a hymn by the J. E. E. F. quartette club. This was beautifully rendered, the singers having piano accompaniment by Miss Myrtle White.

Rev. Mr. Clark offered prayer at the conclusion of the hymn, and this was followed by another rendition of the J. E. E. F. club—"Oh, ye Voices Gone." Capt. Ashe in a few appropriate remarks of elegant diction then presented Mr. F. H. Busbee, the orator of the day, who delivered a most eloquent address on the subject of the "Junior Reserves;" and the CHRONICLE has the great pleasure of presenting that address in full to-day to its readers. At its conclusion there was an outburst of applause, which lasted for some time. The hall exercises were concluded with a selection from the band.

Procession to the Cemetery.

Immediately after the hall exercises, the chief marshal announced that the procession would form at once in front of the building. This was done according to the arrangement previously announced, viz:

Marshals.
Police.
Governor's Guard.
Confederate Veterans.
Fire Department.
Officers of the Memorial Association.
Orator and Chaplain.
Governor and State Officers.
Mayor and Municipal Officers.
County Officers.
Citizens.

The procession was one of the longest ever known here on Memorial day, and it was noticed that the attendance at the Confederate cemetery was larger than it has been for years.

The Line of March.

The line of march was up Fayetteville and down Morgan streets to the old cemetery, where the fire department fell out of line, and the Governor's Guard entered the cemetery and fired a volley over the soldiers buried there. They then returned into line, and the procession moved on to Oakwood cemetery. There also the guard fired a number of volleys. Chaplain Clark then pronounced the benediction, after which the graves were decorated by the Ladies' Memorial Association and their friends.

Notes.

There surely could not have been a more lovely day than was yesterday for the holding of the exercises.

The Governor's Guard marched under the Union flag and also under the General Headquarters flag of the Commander-in-Chief of the State Guard.

The marshals, all of whom, except two, were old Confederate soldiers, marched behind the old Confederate flag. While the procession was moving, a number of views were taken of it by some artists by the instantaneous photograph process.

The contributions of flowers were very liberal on the part of the people. They were sent in by the great baskets.

The fire department was brilliant looking and added largely to the imposing nature of the procession.

The music by the Durham band was generally voted as excellent. It was so good as to create favorable comment that's good enough.

Oakwood cemetery, as it appeared yesterday, is wondrously beautiful. There are few "silent cities" that will surpass it in quiet and restful and peaceful loveliness.

Big Colored Revival.

[Special to the STATE CHRONICLE.]

HIGH POINT, N. C., May 12.—The colored population of this section are now being stirred up to a great extent by the preaching of Rev. Andy Wilburn, pastor of the colored Baptist church, and a minister of considerable local notoriety. Rev. Wilburn has been conducting a revival at this church for some days, and yesterday he baptized twenty men and women in a pool prepared specially for the occasion near his church. A big crowd witnessed the sight and the shouting was immense. Negroes from all over the county are attending the meetings.

Marriage at Ephesus Church.

Mr. Matthew G. Jones and Miss Julia Holloway were married at Ephesus church in Wake county, on Sunday the 11th inst. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jno. R. Maynard.

The marriage occurred at one o'clock and was witnessed by as large an assembly of friends as the spacious church could accommodate. In fact, the popularity of the young couple in the community attracted a greater number of friends than could be seated in the church.

The attendants were Mr. Melvin Andrews and Miss Collie Riggan; Mr. W. D. Upchurch Jr., and Miss Helen Burge; Mr. Chas. Fassmore and Miss Josephine Olive; Mr. Wm. Adams and Miss Mollie Holloway. The ushers were Messrs. Chas. Williams and B. Cooper.

An elegant collation was served at the home of the bride after the ceremony, and then the couple came to Raleigh, which will be their future home.

The groom is a brother of Mr. G. M. Jones of the Raleigh police force.
